PASTOR'S CORNER

Churches Partnering for Missions
(1 Corinthians 16: 1-4)

In the file of divine design, partnership emerges as fundamental, rooted in 1 Corinthians 16:1-4.

From creation, God ordained cooperation, linking His purposes to collective efforts. Mission partnership encompasses various endeavours, from church planting to nurturing church motherhood, all advancing the Great Commission. It's a divine mandate, urgent and compassionate (John 4:35, Psalm 142:4). Effective partnership hinges on shared vision, values, and efforts (Acts 13:2, 2 Corinthians 8:1-5).

Rewards include fulfilling God's pleasure and expanding His kingdom. This call invites all to join, fostering unity and preparing for Christ's return, advancing mission work for His glory.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

For you shall go out with joy, and be led with peace. The mountains and hills shall break forth into singing before you, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

— Isaiah 55:12-13
