PASTORS CORNER

DANIEL - BIBLE CHARACTER STUDY FROM

DANIEL 1-6.

As individuals, entrepreneurs, business administrators, self-employed, civil servants, members, workers or ministers in the Church of God, we are constantly faced with choices that test our integrity, values and commitment to living a life that honours God. Without a strong foundation of character, it is easy to get swept up in the currents of corruption, greed and self-interest that threaten to engulf us. It's against this backdrop that the story of Daniel, a young man who lived in a similarly challenging time, offers us a powerful example of what it means to be exemplary. As we go into the character study of Daniel, we gain valuable insights into what it means to live a life of integrity, faith and courage in the face of adversity (Daniel 1:8).

DECLARATION

I enjoy God's grace and mercies in my life, family and in all my endeavours.
 The mercies of radiate all over me, I am not short of God's wonderful deeds.
 No evil plans come near my dwelling because God's grace and mercy overshadows me.
 I am loved and chosen by God because of his grace and mercies.
