WEEKLY PRAYER FOCUS

- Thank You heavenly Father for your promise of satisfaction for those who hunger and thirst after righteousness. Dear Lord, fill us with the Holy Spirit to the overflow in Jesus.
- Holy Spirit, open my eyes to see beyond the visible and make the invisible real to me, in the name of Jesus.
- I bind the strongman behind my spiritual blindness and deafness and paralyze his operations in my life, in the name of Jesus.
- Holy Spirit, teach me to pray through problems instead of praying about them, in the name of Jesus.
- Every evil spiritual padlock and chain hindering my spiritual growth; be roasted, in the name of Jesus.
- Pray for the families of Anifowoshe Seun & Atanda Abayomi

PASTOR'S CORNER

COME!

For every journey embarked on in life, there will be a time of rest and during the rest there will be need for refreshing.

To Jesus at the well, it was a time for spiritual refreshing. Little wonder his response to the disciples in verse 31 to 32 of John 4 "...I have food to eat you do not know of."

While to the woman at the well it was time for physical refreshing, but grace found her. She came across Him who is the Living Water and her story changed. She became an unplanned evangelist.

Drawing from the natural well will only quench this momentary thirst but drawing from him who is the Living Water will quench all thirst.

What do you thirst for? What do you long for and what infilling do you need? Isaiah 55 vs. 1 calls us to come to the waters... Even at this challenging time in the nation, let's drop our challenges at God's feet, he promised to give us rest.

For everyone who needs a change of story, the Living Water is available. He is here at TNCBC Ikola, ready to fill us till we overflow. Surrender everything to him today and you shall have rest in all ramifications.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

"Hey there! All who are thirsty, come to the water!

Are you penniless?

Come anyway—buy and eat!

Come, buy your drinks, buy wine and milk.

Buy without money—everything's free!

— Isaiah 55:11 (MSG)
