PASTOR'S CORNER

Requirements and Hindrances to Divine Remembrance

Genesis 8:1; Isaiah 1:19

God is a loving Father. His love for us could be compared with the love of a mother to her child. The love is so strong and deep to the extent that He will divinely remember us irrespective of the life challenges we may be passing through.

He however expects us to fulfil certain conditions to enable us to key into His divine remembrance. We are also expected to get rid of those things that could serve as hindrances to our success in life.

As children of God, we are enjoined to obey the word of God and let it be the benchmark for our lives and conduct.

Ecclesiastes 12:13 encourages us to fear God and keep His commandments for this is the whole duty of man.

It is my earnest prayers that we shall be divinely remembered even as we fulfil the requirements and guide against those vices that will hinder our Divine Advancement in Jesus' name.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne? Though she may forget, I will not forget you!

— Isaiah 49:15 (NIV)
