EXPERIENCING EXCITING EXPECTED END

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end."

—Jeremiah 29:11 (KJV)

Even in the harshness of the applied judgement, God had thoughts of peace for His children.

God is more interested in your eternal destiny than your present comfort or pleasure.

God is always looking ahead to the end of the path. It may be necessary to bring you some temporary discomfort in order to bring you into His eternal glory.

God's thoughts concerning you are of peace, He desires that you spend your eternity with Him. This may require that you spend some time in captivity, which will not be very comfortable, but He is looking at the end of the matter.

The end of a matter is better than the beginning, and patience is better than pride. — Ecclesiastes 7:8 (NIV)

Shalom!

WORD FOR THE WEEK

He will bring you to the land that belonged to your ancestors, and you will take possession of it. He will make you more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors. The LORD your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love Him with all your heart and with all your soul and live.

— Deuteronomy 30:5-6 (NIV)
