PASTORS CORNER

Grace for Speedy Shift 2

(Zeph 3:19, Isaiah 1:16-18, Hosea 10:12,Gal 6:4)

It takes two to tango they say. This implies that for speedy shift to come to play we cannot afford to be docile. God is not expecting us to engage grace unto lasciviousness. Hence there are areas where God expects us to take responsibility. There comes the conditions or prerequisites of engaging this facility call grace to experience this Speedy Shift, knowing fully well that will cannot abound in our status quo and expects change of narratives, never!

Thus, we shall be considering or examining the miles stone that necessitates grace for speedy shift.

DECLARATION

As I go this week, I turn fully to God and embrace divine change;

I am not passive. Grace empowers my obedience and action.

I take responsibility, release the old, and align with God's will.

I refuse to remain in the same place; my narrative is shifting.

I cooperate with grace, and I experience a speedy shift.
