PASTOR'S CORNER

In spite of Elijah's powerful expressions of faith in the Lord and supernatural victories, fear came over him at the instance of the threats from Jezebel who intended to kill him. Human reasoning beclouded the supernatural strength of the Lord that was available to him even though the same God was still at work.

Elijah felt he had to flee for his life, but during the journey, God was still with him to empower him. God was his companion even in the turbulent season, and finally, God's assurance of victory at the end when he handed the challenge to God.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

The way you tell me to live is always right; help me understand it so I can live to the fullest.
