PASTOR'S CORNER

Acts 6:1-7

Each church has a time of crisis and the role of the leadership in confronting and resolving that crisis plays a role in getting the congregation back on her feet. The early church had an issue and the leadership did not shy away from the issue.

A proposal was made to the congregation which was acceptable. Leadership must make critical decisions when the need arises and must also carry the congregation along. The appointment of godly leaders is key to a stable church.

Leaders must be godly and have faith in God. They must be willing to obey God and help the congregation to also follow God.

If we are to have a stable church, we must have godly leaders and the responsibility to appoint these leaders rests with us as a congregation like the early church did.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

For he will deliver the needy who cry out, the afflicted who have no one to help. He will take pity on the weak and the needy and save the needy from death.

— Psalm 72:12-13
