Baptist Autonomy: The Spirit, Principles & Practices

Autonomy is a word from two Greek words: 'autos', which means 'self' and 'nomos', which means 'law'. Then autonomy can be said to mean self-rule, self-governing, self-determination, self-control, freedom or liberty to direct one's life and make a personal decision.

Baptist Autonomy means that each local church, after the organisation, must be self-governed, self-funded and self-propagated under the leadership of God. Baptist churches are united through doctrinal beliefs and practices as we work together in the areas of evangelism and missions.

There are lots of images in the Bible that describe the nature of the Church. Examples: the family - 1Tim. 5:1-2; the Bride of Jesus Christ - Eph. 5:32; a Building - 1 Cor. 3:9, etc.

The import of these imageries is that all true and faithful Churches should be united, sanctified, universal in nature, not limited to a race, colour, class or position and must be built upon the authority of the Scripture and the foundation of the apostles and the prophets - Eph. 4:3-6; 1 Pet. 2:9.

—Rev. S. Oladiran, PhD.
