PASTOR'S CORNER

Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.

-Matt. 8:26b

God Who Calm Storms

The disciples were with Jesus in the boat when a furious storm arose. It was so hard that they thought they were going to drown and Jesus was in the boat asleep they went to wake him up telling him that they were not to drown. The Lord chided them for their lack of faith and he rebuked the storm and everywhere became calm.

At different times in life we are faced with storms I'm stumped come to Ross most times we are not prepared for it. Financial storm health emotional marital when it comes we may be bombarded on all sides. The experience of the disciples is typical to all the experiences however the Lord of the storm he's able to come the storms if we come to im in faith and if we know that he is with us in the boat even before the storm rises. May faith continually be grounded in the knowledge of him who is able to grant us peace in the midst of the storm.

WORD FOR THE WEEK
