PASTOR'S CORNER

As distasteful as the description of life challenges can be, I know that even repugnant (detestable) experiences will still come and be overcome by God's grace. Calling to mind the beating and suffering of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, He patiently went through them and was Victorious at the end of it all.

He reconciled man back to his creator and redeemer. Hence we can say that after all these things, when our obedience is complete in God, His settlement is sure as the air we breathe. I hereby encourage all to emulate the example of King David, who encouraged himself in the Lord and was settled by recovering all (1 Samuel 30:1-8).

I pray God's mercy to give all victory in Jesus name. Amen.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

Take delight in the Lord, and He will give you your heart desires.
 —Psalm 37: 4
