PASTOR'S CORNER

HEARING AND FOLLOWING THE VOICE OF GOD

In Acts 16:6-10, Paul and his companions embarked on a missionary journey, but the Holy Spirit prevented them from preaching in Asia and Bithynia. Instead, they were directed to Macedonia. This passage underscores the importance of discerning and following the voice of God. It illustrates the concept of divine guidance, where believers must remain attentive and obedient to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Paul's responsiveness demonstrates the necessity of aligning one's plans with God's will, even if it means deviating from initial intentions. Thus, Acts 16:6-10 emphasizes the significance of spiritual discernment and surrender to God's direction in life's journey.

WORD FOR THE WEEK

BAPTIST MEN'S COVENANT

As part of the Baptist Men's Union in my Church, I commit myself to:

GATHER with other men in the Spirit for study, fellowship, and mutual support in our common mission task:

EXPERIENCE DAILY ENCOUNTER with the living God in personal prayers and scripture study;

DISCOVER my own gift for personal witness and ministry;

BE INVOLVED in some continuous expression of witness/ministry in the world;

GIVE sacrificially, beginning with the tithe;

ABSTAIN from the sale and consumption of intoxicating drinks as a beverage;

ADHERE to the New Testament teaching of monogamy as God's ideal state of family life;

STAND clear and away from any secret society and/or cult;

NOT JOINING myself to any secret society or ungodly groupings;

BECOME a mature, informed disciple of Christ;

CELEBRATE the risen, coming Lord in weekly worship;

SO HELP ME GOD!
