PASTOR'S CORNER

God's Measure of Success

The story of the talents (Matt. 25:13-30) is about the kingdom of heaven but it offers an important lesson about success. God measures our success not by what we have, but by what we do with we have – for all that we have is a gift from Him. We are really only managers to whom He has entrusted resources and responsibilities.

The key He looks for is faithfulness (Matt. 25:21, 23). Doing what we can to obey and honour him with whatever he has He has given us. We may or may not be "successful" as our culture measures success in terms of wealth, prestige, power or fame. In the long run, that hardly matters. What counts is whether we have faithfully served God with He has entrusted. By all means, we must avoid wasting our lives, the way the third servant wasted his talents, failing to carry out our Master's business.

– The Ultimate A-Z Resource

WORD FOR THE WEEK

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

— Isaiah 40:31 (NIV)
